4. Summary of how the school meets the needs of children with SEN and disabilities
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Access to good/outstanding teaching and a curriculum adapted to individual needs. • Monitoring of progress and new targets set. • Awareness of individual needs and any adjustments that need to be made to ensure inclusion and progress. • High quality planned intervention to ensure inclusion and progress. • A clear SEND policy followed consistently in all classrooms. • A team that coordinates all the support for children with special educational needs (SEN) and/or disabilities, to ensure all needs are met. • Keeping you informed and involved in your child's education. • Working with outside services. • Maintaining records. • Support for teachers and support staff in the school so they can help your child (and other pupils with SEN and/or disabilities in the school) to achieve their potential. • Organising training for staff targeted to the needs of the school. • Ensuring SEND provision in school is effective to meet all needs. 	SEND CoP 6.79 bullet 5

- Monitoring the SEND provision in school, including policies.
- Ensuring your child achieves his/her potential in school.

If the child is looked after by the local authority they will have an Additional Needs Plan. We will co-ordinate these plans with the SEN support plan and will involve parents and carers as well as foster carers or social workers in discussions.

5. How does the school identify children's special educational needs

We aim to identify children's special educational needs (SEN) as early as possible, so that the child achieves the best possible outcomes

A pupil has SEN where their learning difficulty or disability calls for special educational provision. That is provision which is different from or additional to that normally available to pupils of the same age.

Children may have one or more broad areas of special educational need:

- Communication and interaction - including speech and language difficulties and autism
- Cognition and learning - including developmental delay and specific learning difficulties such as dyslexia, dyscalculia and dyspraxia.
- Social, emotional and mental health difficulties - including difficulties with behaviour, attention deficit hyperactive disorder, an attachment disorder or anxiety.
- Sensory and/or physical needs- including visual and hearing impairment, dyspraxia, cerebral palsy and other physical disabilities or medical conditions which affect a child's learning.

A pupil has SEN where their learning difficulty or disability calls for special educational provision, namely provision different from or additional to that normally available to pupils of the same age.

We will assess each pupil's current skills and level of attainment on entry to the school. We will make regular assessments of progress for all pupils. These will seek to identify pupils making less than expected progress given their age and individual circumstances.

SEND CoP 6.79

This is progress which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • is significantly slower than that of their peers starting from the same baseline. • fails to match or better the child's previous rate of progress • fails to close the attainment gap between the child and their peers • widens the attainment gap The first response to less than expected progress will always be high quality teaching targeted at the pupil's area of weakness. In identifying a child as needing SEN support, the class teacher, working with the SENCO, will carry out a clear analysis of the pupil's needs including the individual's development in comparison to their peers and national data. Slow progress and low attainment do not necessarily mean that a child has SEN. Equally; attainment in line with chronological age does not necessarily mean that there is no learning difficulty or disability. Difficulties related solely to limitations in English as an additional language are not SEN. Persistent disruptive or withdrawn behaviours do not necessarily mean that a child has SEN. We are alert to emerging difficulties and respond early. For some children, SEN can be identified at an early age. However, for other children difficulties become evident only as they develop. We recognise that parents know their children best and listen and understand when parents express concerns about their child's development. We also listen and address any concerns raised by children themselves. Where it is decided to provide a pupil with SEN support the decision will be recorded in school records and we will formally notify parents. We are required to make data on the levels and types of SEN within the school available to the Local Authority. This data collected through the School Census, is also required to produce the national SEN information report.
6. How does the school teach and support children with SEN?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ High quality teaching ○ Differentiated planning, tailored to meet the needs of each child, will include support, scaffolding and appropriate resources to meet you child's needs ○ Specifically trained support staff can implement the teachers modified or adapted planning to support ○ Targeted interventions to support individual or small groups regularly monitored for evidence of impact ○ SENCO support to class teachers in teaching children with SEN through observations and feedback including feedback from outside agencies ○ Pupil Progress Meetings every six weeks to monitor individual pupil progress and impact of support. 	SEND CoP 6.79 bullet 7 The approach to teaching children and young people with SEN

Example of some of the 'additional to and different from' provision

Jump Ahead	Improves children's gross and fine motor skills regularly suggested by Occupational Therapists.	Delivered 2 to 3 times a week in a small group
Lego Therapy	Improves children's social skills and communication skills	Delivered 1 to 2 times a week in small group of up to 3 children
Memory Fix	Improves children's short term memory skills	Delivered in a small group up to 3 times a week for 20 minutes.

The Head Teacher, Deputy Head Teacher and SENCO monitor and support teachers and support staff to ensure good teaching through performance management meetings and regular observations of teaching.

7. How will the curriculum and learning environment be matched to the child's needs?

All pupils will have access to a broad and balanced curriculum which is suitable for all our pupils. We will set high expectations for all pupils.

We adjust the curriculum for each child with SEN to make sure that they can access the subjects at their own level and make progress. This is called 'differentiation'.

We will look at the child's level of achievement and see what support they need to make good progress and reach their potential. We will use our Assessment policy to do. We will talk with children and parents as part of the SEN support cycle (assess, plan, do, review)

The curriculum will be matched to your child's needs through:-

- carefully differentiated activities, tailored to individual needs
- suitable grouping of children according to needs and abilities
- an individual learning plan that targets specific areas of the curriculum which require additional support
- specialist resources which enable better access to the curriculum e.g. ICT programmes, published programmes, specialist reading schemes etc
- specialist equipment which enables better access to the curriculum such as writing slopes, pencil grips, seating, coloured rulers etc.
- teaching assistant support as needed

8. How are parents and carers involved in reviewing children's progress and planning support?
We are committed to working in partnership with parents and carers. We will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Have regard to the views, wishes and feelings of parents. ○ Provide parents with the information and support necessary to enable full participation in decision making through three Structured Conversation Meetings each year. ○ Support parents in order to facilitate the development of their child to help them achieve the best possible educational and other outcomes, preparing them effectively for adulthood. ○ Meet with the parents of children at least three times each year. ○ Provide opportunities for parents to contribute children's Individual learning Plans and One Page Profiles ○ Provide an annual report for parents on their child's progress. Each child will have an Individual Learning Plan (ILP) which identifies short term outcomes for the child and additional provision in class and out of class interventions will be agreed by the child and parents. The ILP's are reviewed by the class teacher and SENCO every 6 weeks. They are shared with parents and their views are recorded. Parents have the opportunity to discuss their child's progress against the ILP outcomes at Structured Conversation Meetings. To see a copy of our ILP please see attached appendices to the SEND Information Report. A few children or young people who are falling behind or making inadequate progress may need extra, targeted school based support additional to and different from what is normally available. A provision map is a good way to showing what is being done. In East Sussex a Additonal Needs Plan is used when, despite the appropriate targeted support, a child continues to make little or no progress or to work at levels considerably below those of their peers. Many of these children are likely to be receiving support from other agencies. Children with statements or Education, Health and Care plans also have an annual review which forms one of the three reviews through the year.	SEND CoP 6.79 bullet 3 Arrangements for consulting parents of children with SEN and involving them in their child's education SEND CoP 6.79 bullet 5 Arrangements for assessing and reviewing children and young people's progress towards outcomes. This should include the opportunities available to work with parents and young people as part of this assessment and review

9. How are children involved in reviewing their progress and planning support?

Children's involvement in reviewing their progress and contributing towards the planning of their support is fundamental to ensuring the child makes good progress. This allows for a child centred approach to planning their support.

The table below summarises opportunities children have to talk about their learning.

	Who's involved?	How often?
Self-assessment	Pupil, class teacher	Daily
One page Pupil Profiles	Pupil, class teacher and parent	Once a year
School Council	Class, class teacher	Termly
Pupil Voice	Pupil and Pastoral leader	At least once a year

10. How does the school prepare and support children to transfer to a new school/ college or the next stage of education and life?

We recognise that transitions can be difficult for a child with special educational needs and take steps to ensure that any transition is as smooth as possible.

If your child is transferring from pre-school into the Reception class we:

- gather information from your child's pre-school and special 'transition meetings' which include parents are arranged for those children transferring from pre-school who have significant needs. Parents are included in this meeting
- arrange home visits for those children starting Reception class who have significant needs
- arrange for the Reception class teacher to visit the feeder pre-school and talk to your child's key worker
- consult with other people who have been involved with your child's education such as a speech and language therapist, the Early Years Service or educational psychologist
- listen to what you have to say about your child and how best to help him/her settle into Reception class
- arrange extra visits to the school/classroom if appropriate
- arrange part-time admission in the first instance if thought to be appropriate
- prepare any specialist resources prior to starting school.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ put in place transition support if pupil transferring from another school (e.g. half way through the school year) to any year group in our school. ○ In school transition arrangements from class to class/key stage 1 to key stage 2 If your child is moving to another school we:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ ensure all records are passed on to the new school ○ make contact with your child's new school and talk to the SENCO and class teacher about how best to ensure a smooth transition ○ authorise your child's absence should you want him/her to enjoy a 'taster' day at his/her new school. If your child is transferring to secondary school we: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ ensure all records are passed on to the new school ○ make contact with key staff at the secondary school (eg SENCO, head of year, head of pastoral care etc) and talk to them about how best to ensure a smooth transition ○ ensure your child takes part in the secondary school transfer programme and arrange extra visits to the school if appropriate ○ make/prepare any specialist resources prior to starting school such as photograph books, social stories etc ○ try to arrange any Statement review meetings during Term4/5 prior to secondary transfer (in April/May) and invite colleagues from the secondary school to join us for the meeting. 	education, employment, independent living and participation in society
11. What training does school staff have?
We have a programme of training and support for staff based on the needs of the pupils within the school and linked to the schools development plan. Staff attend more individualised training if they are supporting a pupil with a specific need. The SENCO, class teachers and/or teaching assistants have attended a variety of training courses recently including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ differentiation of the curriculum, which means tailoring work to meet the individual needs of each child ○ safeguarding and child protection ○ dyslexia training for teaching assistants ○ organising and running social skills groups ○ supporting pupils with ASD ○ Sensory Circuit training The SENCO has been awarded Postgraduate Certificate Special Educational Needs and Disability (National Award for SEN Coordination)	SEND CoP 6.79 bullet 9 The expertise and training of staff to support children and young people with SEN, including how specialist expertise will be secured

12. How does the school measure how well it teaches and supports children with SEN?

We regularly and carefully review the quality of teaching for all pupils to make sure no-one under achieves. We look at whether our teaching and programmes of support have made a difference. We use information systems to monitor the progress and development of all pupils. This helps us to develop the use of interventions that are effective and to remove those that are less so.

We send home a parent questionnaire every year then summarise the results and feedback to parents. This information helps to inform the school improvement plan.

We also invite parents to provide feedback at meetings, through attending parent forums and through the Ofsted parent view website. <https://parentview.ofsted.gov.uk/>

Ofsted report June 2016

Leaders responsible for pupils who have special educational needs or disability ensure that appropriate provision is put in place and that work with outside agencies has a positive impact. As a result, this group of pupils are making good progress from their starting points. Parents who spoke to inspectors also confirm that this is the case.
